About the Seminar:
With creations pouring out from every mind all over the world, it becomes imperative to demarcate one's ownership and authority over one's own idea. Intellectual property thus plays an important role in providing a competitive edge to individuals in particular and institutions in general. Academic institutions play a crucial role in ensuring skilled human resource to industries, government institutions, academia and the research and development wings of various entities. The contribution of Intellectual Property in fostering a creative and innovative culture in the academic and research domain of higher education institutions is immense.
This seminar seeks to provide an opportunity for the faculty members of Vimala College to develop awareness and understand the role that intellectual property has in fostering an industrious and productive culture within the College.
