As part of MSW curriculum, the 24 social work students of Vimala collage, Thrissur were assigned a community field work based on the PMAY (Pradhan Mantri Aawas Yojana) under the supervision of Ms.Beena. E, social development specialist, PMAY technical cell. The 24 students were divided into 12 groups, each group containing 2 members and gave each team different wards of the corporation. This survey was started in 13/07/2019. We took almost 3 months in order to complete the survey. All Saturdays we went to visit the PMAY Beneficiaries and collected many details like the progress of work, whether they have ration card, Aadhar card and so on. As a part of this survey, we, Ms. Nisma M. A andTessy Kurian conducted an awareness program for the people belongs to 18th ward. This 18th ward included the places such as Mannuthy, Mulayam road, Mullakkara, pattalakkunnu and also Elanjikulam. The class was based on parenting skills.

Objectives

- To study how to organize and coordinate the program.
- To give awareness class about the topic good parenting and parenting skills to prevent drug abuse in future.

As part of the survey we decided to conduct an awareness class on good parenting and parenting skills. Because that community is facing a serious drug and alcohol issue. So we think that we need to educate the young parents how to give guidance and care to their children. So for that we contacted child line, Thrichur. They agree to take a class for parents. In order to conduct the programme we seek permission from the respected division Councillor Adv. A.S. Ramadas. He was a very cooperating person. He helped us to prepare and arrange program according to protocol. We met him and prepared the notice. After that we went to deputy mayor inorder to invite him to do the inauguration ceremony. He agreed us to do the inauguration. We need a sponsor. So we go to ask help to Mannuthy Agri city of Lions club. They were ready to give a sponsorship. So we printed notice and distributed to the people. We gave that notice to 70 houses. We also collected their phone numbers and we remembered them about the program.

The program was conducted in Elanjikulam Anganwadi. We went to the place at 8.00 am. First we go to flower market and buy some flowers for inauguration ceremony. Then we buy some stationary items. Then we buy one lamb for rent from Mannuthy. After this we reached the place at 9.15 am and do the arrangements such as banner fitting, chair arrangements, mike and so on. Councillor gave guidance to us. At 9.45 deputy mayor reached there. We welcomed him. And also lions club members came there. They played a good role in order to make this program success.

Program began at 10.30 am. We started with prayer. Ms. Tessa Kurian was assigned to welcome the honorable guest. After that presidential address was spoken by councillor Adv. A. S Ramadas. Then deputy mayor inaugurated the program. He gave a good talk and appreciated us for conducting this program in such a good way. After that felicitation was spoken by lions club members. They play a major role in order to make the program success. The official session was came to an end by the vote of thanks by Ms. Nisma. M. A. After that we had a refreshment session.

After that the awareness class began. It was held by Thrissur district child line coordinator Mr. Jino Devasy. He was an apt person to take class on good parenting and parenting skills. He started his class by introducing about child line. Then he gave a detailed talk on how to deal a child and also he shared his experience. The class was a useful one. The session was followed by an interactive session in which the beneficiaries clarified their doubts and queries on the session.

People gave us feedback on the program. Every person told us that it was very helpful and they were able to clarify many doubts about good parenting. They told us that it helped them to improve their parenting skills. So by evaluating this we could say that it was a good and useful program.
