FINE ARTS- AAGNEYA 2K16

INAUGURATION

The most celebrated event of Vimala College, the Fine Arts Festival- Aagneya 2K16, was conducted from 13/12/2016 to 16/12/2016. The inauguration of the fine arts competitions was held on 13/12/ 2016 by the most renowned music director of Malayalam film industry Sri. Mechery Louis Ousepachan. He was accompanied by one of his beloved students Mr. Charlie who also is an upcoming singer. The program began at 10:30 am in the college auditorium with a mesmerizing welcome dance performance by the college dance club members. It was then followed by another performance by the college music band members which included some of the famous compositions of Sri. Ouseppachan.

The guests of the day Sri.Ouseppachan and Mr.Charlie, along with our beloved Principal Dr.Sr.Maries.V.L, fine arts coordinator Mallika.A.Nair, fine arts secretary Malavika Jayakrishnan and Chairperson Amalendu V Joseph were invited to occupy the seats on the stage. The welcome address of Aagneya 2k16 was delivered by Kumari Malavika Jayakrishnan which was followed by the lamp lighting ceremony that marked the beginning of the fine arts competitions for the academic year 2016-2017.Sri.Ouseppachan gave the inaugural address and he shared some of his experiences from his career with the crowd. Mr. Charlie entertained us all with a song which was one of his own works. This was followed by a presidential address by our principal Dr.Sr.Maries V.L. Our fine arts coordinator Ms.Mallika A Nair felicitated the function. He was also presented with a memento by our principal on behalf of our college. The previous college union was invited on the dias and was gifted with a small token of love as an honor for their hard work and support. The program came to an end with the vote of thanks delivered by Kumari Amalendu V Joseph. Thus the fine arts competitions of Vimala were marked by a prestigious beginning.

Competitions

In order to conduct the competitions without losing its energy and spirit the entire students of the college were divided into 4 groups named Gargi, Thathri, Mythreyi and Droupathy and each house was assigned to a group leader. The houses were named after 4 very powerful and respected women who had made India proud.

The teachers from our college and few people from outside who have made their marks in their respective fields were selected for judging various competitions.

Various off stage events like essay writing, versification, painting, extempore, debate etc were held during the 1st and 2nd weeks of December. On stage competitions began on the same day of inauguration and it lasted till 15/12/2017. The major onstage events were Thiruvathirakali, group dance, group song, Bharatanatyam, folkdance, Mohiniyatam, Kuchipudi, Mime, light music, classical music, and semi classical music. College auditorium, new seminar hall, old seminar hall, rooms 601 and 603. The results of each on stage item were announced immediately after the event and the judgments were carried out with utmost honesty and fairness.

As part of fine arts week several companies and institutes came up with their advertisements to be exhibited within the college premise. Also stalls of books and snacks were set up in the leisure tower for the students to add to their joy.

Closing ceremony

Unlike previous fine arts festivals, the golden jubilee fine arts festival came to an end by yet another mind-blowing event. Taking in to consideration the interests of the students the college union invited playback singer Sooraj Santosh as the chief guest for the day. He is a winner of Kerala state award for best male playback singer and is also a member of the popular music band Masala coffee. The guest, along with his wife, arrived at 10 am and the program started in the auditorium with a welcome dance by the college dance club members. There was also a solo performance by Shwetha Somasundaram of 4th sem Botany.

After the performances Mr.Sooraj Santosh along with our Principal Dr.Sr.Maries V.L and our fine arts coordinator Mallika A Nair were invited to occupy the seats on the dais. The welcome address was given by our fine arts secretary Malavika Jayakrishnan after which the lighting of the lamp ceremony took place. Vimala then witnessed the most exciting and memorable moments afterwards when Mr.Sooraj Santosh was invited for the interactive session. He greeted us all with Thrissur's own 'Kantha njanum varam' song. He also gave some very good advices in his speech and also shared his views about independent music. Later he called up Shwetha Somasundaram on to the stage as he was impressed by her singing and together they sang 'Munbe vaa' which added up to our pleasure. He also entertained us with another of his master piece 'Aalayal thara venam' and also made the crowd to sing along with him. He didn't have enough words to praise the amazing crowd he had witnessed in

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Christmas, being the feast day of Christ, is one of the most important celebrations in Vimala. Christmas celebration began a week before Christmas holidays. Various competitions like crib making, card making, carol song, star making, tableau etc were organized as part of Christmas celebrations. Charity works were also given equal importance along with other programs. The Christmas celebration for the academic year 2016-2017 was held on 23/12/2016 in the college auditorium. Vimala had a very special guest from Germany, Sabine Schirdes, to celebrate the day. Sabine Schirdes was a German photographer who was in Kerala as part of her work and was very enthusiastic about joining Vimala for celebrating her Christmas for the year. She reached Vimala at 9:30 in the morning and made herself comfortable in the company of the staff. Once the auditorium was full, the guest along with our principal and other staff members proceeded to the auditorium. Various programs like carol song, dance, cake cutting etc were organized in the auditorium. When our guest was called upon to share her experience she fell out of words in expressing her love for Kerala and how lucky she was to be with Vimalites for celebrating Christmas. She even joined with our students and performed a few dance steps with them. Vimala was so honored to have such a great guest that too from a foreign country for this Christmas. Christmas cakes were also distributed to all the students in the college.
