Christmas, being the feast day of Christ, is one of the most important celebrations in Vimala. Christmas celebration began a week before Christmas holidays. Various competitions like crib making, card making, carol song, star making, tableau etc were organized as part of Christmas celebrations. Charity works were also given equal importance along with other programs. The Christmas celebration for the academic year 2016-2017 was held on 23/12/2016 in the college auditorium. Vimala had a very special guest from Germany, Sabine Schirdes, to celebrate the day. Sabine Schirdes was a German photographer who was in Kerala as part of her work and was very enthusiastic about joining Vimala for celebrating her Christmas for the year. She reached Vimala at 9:30 in the morning and made herself comfortable in the company of the staff. Once the auditorium was full, the guest along with our principal and other staff members proceeded to the auditorium. Various programs like carol song, dance, cake cutting etc were organized in the auditorium. When our guest was called upon to share her experience she fell out of words in expressing her love for Kerala and how lucky she was to be with Vimalites for celebrating Christmas. She even joined with our students and performed a few dance steps with them. Vimala was so honored to have such a great guest that too from a foreign country for this Christmas. Christmas cakes were also distributed to all the students in the college.
