A New Language Is a Key to

As the world shrinks to the windows on your computer screens, and the doors of higher education in Foreigns Universities are no longer mere day dreams, learning a new language means being equipped to step up to global citizenship, to unmatched possibilities and opportunities.

While the newer generations seek novel careers, the Department of English hopes to fuel their aspirations further. We see in our students, future translators, reasearchers of comparative literary and cultural studies, foreign language teachers, we see them migrating to foreign lands to explore their potential.

It is with this clear vision in our mind that we associated with Alliance Francaise, Trivandrum to start a comprehensive course in French language.
