

SESSIONS

Session 1

1. Understanding Cultural Sensitivity in addressing issues of indigenous population.
2. Overview of cultural competence and its importance in inclusive social work.
3. Identifying biases and breaking stereotypes.
4. Skills and qualities required for working with indigenous population.
5. Case studies: Successful culturally sensitive interventions.

Interactive session

Session 2

1. Challenges in Indigenous health care.
2. Cultural, social, and systemic barriers in tribal health care.
3. Current status of tribal health services in India.
4. Techniques, skills and qualities required for professionals to work in health care with indigenous population.

Interactive session

NATIONAL WORKSHOP

Enhancing Cultural Sensitivity
& Addressing Tribal Health Challenges

Date: 13 January, 2025

Time: 9:30 am to 4:30 pm

Last date of registration: 11 January, 2025

Session 1:

Cultural Sensitivity in Action: Understanding and Addressing Indigenous Realities with Cultural Competence

Dr. Jyothi Krishnan

Associate Professor & Course-Coordinator,
Department of Disaster Management, Loyola
College of Social Sciences (Autonomous), Thiruvananthapuram.

PhD (Centre for Water and Climate, Wageningen
University, Netherlands), MSW (Tata Institute of Social Sciences).

Session 2:

Power, knowledge, and practices: The story of Adivasi Health in India

Mr. Tekumal Santhosh

Research Scholar (Social Anthropology), IIT
Hyderabad.

MPhil (University of Delhi), MSW (Tata Institute of Social Sciences).

REGISTRATION LINK

<https://forms.gle/ukPETc1ugx4rczKw5>

Registration fees: Rs 200
Certificates will be provided.

BANK ACCOUNT DETAILS:

NAME: VIMALA COLLEGE

ACCOUNT NUMBER: 0435073000000128

IFSC: SIBL0000435

BRANCH: CHERUR

BANK: SOUTH INDIAN BANK

Head of the Department:

Dr. Jaya Cherian, Associate Professor, Department of Social Work

Program Convenor:

Dr. Treesa T Pulickal, ICSSR Minor Research Project
Director and Assistant Professor, Department of Social Work

Program Committee:

Ms. Anju George, Research Assistant, 6235727343

Ms. Krishna Prabha S, Field Investigator, 8547447780