“WEAVING SMILES” is an endeavour to weave a smile on the face of differently abled children . This is an effort to support such kids for their well being and livelihood .

Social responsibility is the duty every citizen has to perform in terms of giving back something to the society to maintain a balance in the system . A responsible person should take ownership of their actions by exhibiting these behaviors with integrity and honesty. For this noble gesture we are associating with the students from HARI SRI VIDYA NIDHI SCHOOL , One of the leading ICSE schools in Kerala which has a proven track record in academics , soft skill training imparted in the students , excelled in the field of sports and culture . We are trying to mould these little kids for this noble cause through art and designing thereby spreading the awareness about the social responsibilities one has to fulfil and simultaneously educate them on the prominence of Indian art forms and to be proud of its culture .

These little hands will showcase their talent of art and painting on the fabrics specially designed by the Ace Fashion Designer Ms.ANJALI VARMA . The work done by these children for this cause will be showcased and also will be available for purchase on February 1st and 2nd 2020 in association with SOLACE a reputed NGO who are into pain and palliative care especially for children . We have been associating with SOLACE in the past as well , the latest being “KHADI TALE” which was an event related to products made from Khadi thereby reiterating the importance of our national fabric of Khadi .The proceeds of that event was diverted for the betterment of lives of children who were affected with Paediatric Cancer . In the same manner the proceeds of this event will be utilised for the upliftment of these differently abled children so that they also feel included in the main stream of the society thereby Weaving a Smile on their faces .
