

Extension activities

Sl.No	Year	Event	Venue	No.of Beneficiaries
1	2020-21	The eco-biological details of the animals kept in the Thrissur Zoo was collected by UG and PG students. The articles prepared by the students are compiled and published as a hand book 'ZOO FABLE' with ISBN number. The book is of value to relevant the stakeholders including zoo visitors, zoological professionals and animal activists and it can raise awareness of the ecological needs of animals that should be addressed by the Zoo management association and for public awareness..	State Zoo And Museum, Thrissur	110 UG students
2	2021-22	A field trip was to conduct a survey of street trees in Thrissur and training for handling survey tools and methods for mapping of trees. Students were grouped after providing necessary instructions on tools and apps used for tree mapping Dr.Alex and Vimod Kumar. Each group were provided selected localities of Thrissur city, they measured a minimum of 10 trees and collected data.	Nearby Thrissur	90
3	2022-23	29 Final year UG students visited the Pakalveedu – a place for aged women for spending day time, at Padukkad campus of the Vimala college and interacted with the inmates. They performed various cultural activities for them.	Padukkad campus	29
4	2022-23	Visit To Chimini Wildlife Sanctuary- A Team Of 29 Students And Three Teachers Visited The Sanctuary On 11-02-2023 accompanied By The Expersts In Plant Taxonomy Mr Sanal And Zoologist From KFRI, Mr Arun Along With 6 Forest Guards. Mr Sanal Explained The Types Of Forest Ecosystems In The Sanctuary- The Dry Deciduous Forest, Moist Deciduous Forest And A Patch Of Evergreen Forest	Chimini Wildlife Sanctuary	29

