

Covid 19: What to expect-Role of Youth in the fight against Covid- Report

Department of psychology Vimala college organised webinar on 7th July 2021 on the topic " Covid 19: What to expect-Role of Youth in the fight against Covid . This webinar is aimed at raising awareness among students about Covid -19 and to empower the younger generation to fight against Covid. It was well organised webinar with participation of many students.

The webinar was conducted by the faculty coordinator Dr. Sinto P Anto Assistant Professor and Head of Department of psychology, Vimala college. Anisha Antony from the Department of Social Work was the student coordinator. Soniya varkey was the emcee of the program. Webinar started with the prayer by Midhuna. P. The gathering was welcomed by Dr. Sinto P Anto. The presidential address was done by George Mathew deputy director, field outreach bureau, government of India, ministry of information and broadcasting Thrissur. The resource person arranged was Dr Rahul Regional Director, Kerala Health Mission. Since he was busy with his work, the Dr Neethu Sona, Joint Director, Field Outreach bureau, Keral- Lakhadeep effectively handled the session. She explained about the role of youth in fighting against the Covid.

